C. Qualifications

33. If a child in care has a known food allergy, does the provider have a written plan which includes instructions regarding food allergens, steps to be taken to avoid the food, and a detailed treatment plan to be implemented if the child has an allergic reaction? 67:42:17:29

Corrections To Be Made:

There was not a written plan that included steps to be taken to avoid the food for a child in care with a known food allergy.

A provider shall have a written care plan for each child who has a known food allergy. The plan must contain instructions regarding any food allergens, steps to be taken to avoid that food, and a detailed treatment plan to be implemented if the child has an allergic reaction.

Correction: A written plan was obtained for all children in care with a known food allergy.
